Terms and Conditions / Participant Declaration

This form includes Terms and Conditions and releases CIEE (Council on International Educational Exchange) from liability. It must be signed by all participants. I agree that the following terms and conditions are binding on me and my adherence to them is imperative.

Applicant Responsibilities

- The applicant agrees that all the information provided in the application is true to the best of his/her knowledge, and acknowledges that any false or misleading information may lead to immediate dismissal from the Program.
- The applicant is responsible for considering his/her personal health and safety needs when applying for or accepting a place on the Program. If the applicant suffers from any health or other condition that would create a risk for him/her while abroad, he/she should not apply.
- The applicant agrees to pay all fees in accordance with the requirements of the CIEE Representative through whom he/she is submitting an application.
- The Applicant is responsible for submitting all requested documentation to the CIEE Representative in a timely fashion for visa processing. CIEE cannot be held responsible for any additional costs incurred (including the cost of rebooking or cancelling a flight) by the applicant due to delays in submitting documentation, verifying employment, or delays caused by the U.S. Embassy in processing visa applications, scheduling a visa interview, issuing a visa, or visa denial.
- Each applicant must pay the local visa fee to the U.S. Embassy. Applicants are responsible for any additional fees that might apply at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in the country where they are applying for the visa, as well as the government SEVIS fee collected as part of the application.
- All applicants must attend an interview and complete language screening in order to participate on the program.

Participant Responsibilities

- The participant is responsible for reading and carefully considering all materials made available that relate to safety, health, legal, environmental, political, cultural and religious customs and conditions in the U.S. Each participant must take full responsibility in the event that laws, regulations, or customs are broken, regardless of foreknowledge.
- Each participant is required to complete a CIEE Orientation.
- It is the responsibility of the participant to exercise due care once in possession of the legal documentation (DS-2019) and visa. The cost of replacing these items must be borne by the participant.
- The participant must supply CIEE with the name and contact details for an emergency contact, to be contacted in the case of emergency. These details must be included on the application form.
- The participant is responsible for all of his or her acts along with any loss or damage resulting therefrom while on the Program. The Participant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless CIEE and any other party that has suffered a loss by reason of the participant's conduct.
- All travel before, during and after the Program is at the participant's own risk. Any participant who chooses to operate motorized vehicles is responsible for obtaining the necessary license, permission and insurance and does so at his/her own risk.
- Participant agrees to comply rigorously with the monitoring schedule set up by CIEE.
- The participant must have at least $800 with him or her upon arrival in the U.S. in order to support himself or herself in the U.S. until he or she receives his/her first paycheck.
- If, during the course of the program the participant encounters any difficulties with safety, health, job, housing, including charges or fees for housing, sanitary conditions, overcrowding, etc. or any other problem, the participant must notify CIEE as soon as possible by phoning CIEE at 1-888-268-6245, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Participants on Work & Travel USA are required to comply with all U.S. Government visa and immigration requirements including the SEVIS tracking as follows: a) notification of arrival at U.S. employer to CIEE within 10 days of DS-2019 start date; b) providing a valid address, email address, and phone number upon arrival at U.S. employer; c) notification to CIEE of any change in U.S. home address, phone number and/or email address within 10 days of change.

Employment or Job Related Conditions

- All employment must be vetted and approved by CIEE. Prohibited jobs include, but are not limited to, au pairs, childcare providers, teachers, teaching assistants, camp counselors, pedicab operators; or working in private households, as ship or aircraft crew members, or as medical staff having patient contact. From time to time the list of prohibited jobs is updated. More information is available on the CIEE Work & Travel USA website, www.ciee.org/wat.
- Under no circumstances are job positions guaranteed. Even in the case when an employer represents that a job is being held, this does not constitute a binding contract that the job will be available when the participant arrives. The employer's commitment is one of good faith only.

- If the participant does not have sufficient English skills and/or does not arrive on time and/or has misrepresented any statement in the application, the job offer may be revoked.
- If the participant does not meet their contractual obligations with the employer or with CIEE, CIEE may at their sole discretion withdraw or terminate sponsorship of the participant.
- Participants must work for the employer listed on their Employment Offer Agreement Form (EOAF) or Job Offer Form (JOF). If, for any reason, a change of employer becomes necessary, participants must contact CIEE and obtain written approval BEFORE changing jobs. If a participant leaves their employment without the prior written approval of CIEE, CIEE reserves the right to revoke his/her legal sponsorship which will result in the termination of his/her program and his/her legal right to remain in the U.S.
- Participants on Work & Travel USA are required to maintain communication with their employer prior to arrival, notify them in advance of their arrival and departure dates, and advise them of any changes to their travel itinerary due to visa delays or any unforeseen circumstances.
- Due to weather conditions, or other factors beyond CIEE's control, some jobs have uncertain start dates and hours of work, and employment may become unavailable. CIEE/Representative are not responsible for the participant's expenses due to these factors, financial difficulties of the employer, or for any other reason not under the direct control of CIEE/Representative.
- Participants are solely responsible for their own conduct and well-being both on and off the job. CIEE cannot and does not monitor participant's personal conduct, subject, however, to Paragraphs 27 and 43.
- If a CIEE-sourced job position is no longer available, through no fault of the participant's own, after a signed EOAF/JOF has been issued to participant, or if for any reason CIEE deems it necessary to relocate a participant from a CIEE-sourced job either before the job commences or at any time during the job period, CIEE will assist the participant in finding another position but CIEE makes no guarantee with respect to being able to do so. Nor does CIEE make any representation that it will be able to find work for the participant in the same geographical area or of the same type of work or pay as the original CIEE-sourced job.
- In case of change of job or of premature termination of job, or if the employment is terminated before the end of the program for any reason, or if the participant decides to return home early, no fees will be refunded.
- If a participant is fired from his or her job for violation of employer policies, including their failure of a company-required drug test at the commencement of or anytime during employment, he or she will be withdrawn from the program with no refund of program or CIEE Job Service fees.
- If the participant's original job ends before the legal working dates listed on the DS-2019 for any reason, it is the participant's responsibility to inform CIEE and get approval for any new job.

Contractual Terms

- This English language version of the Contract is the binding contract between the participant and CIEE.
- CIEE makes no presentation or warranty of any kind, expressed or implied, as to the suitability of the Program for any participant and CIEE disclaims all such warranties to the full extent of the law.
- The conduct of the Work & Travel USA Program is subject to U.S. government approval and may change without notice.
- The participant understands that perceived or actual epidemics (such as, but not limited to, SARS or bird flu) can seriously delay, disrupt, interrupt or cause the cancellation of entire programs. The participant agrees to assume all risks and losses (including financial) which result from any such occurrence.
- CIEE does not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for the program including, for example, arrangements for or ownership or control over houses, apartments or other lodging facilities, airline, vessel, bus or other transportation companies, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, CIEE is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity, or of any third party. Without limitation, CIEE is not responsible for any injury, loss, or damage to person or property, death, delay or inconvenience in connection with the provision of any goods or services occasioned by or resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God, force majeure, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities or the threat thereof of any kind, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, structural or other defective conditions in houses, apartments or other lodging facilities (or in any heating, plumbing, electrical or structural problem therein), mechanical or other failure of airplanes or other means of transportation or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart in a timely manner, dangers associated with domestic or wild animals, sanitation problems, food poisoning, disease, epidemics or the threat thereof, lack of, access to or quality of medical care, difficulty in evacuation in case of medical or other emergency, or for any other cause beyond the direct control of CIEE.

- The participant agrees that any dispute concerning, relating, or referring to the EOAF/JOF, to the Work & Travel USA Application, to any other literature concerning the program, or the program itself shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration in Portland, Maine, according to then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. Such proceedings will be governed by substantive Maine law. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable.
- CIEE reserves the right to provide you with information CIEE deems useful to program participants, including but not limited to tax, travel and related services.

CIEE Program-Related Conditions

- CIEE reserves the right to refuse sponsorship of any applicant that CIEE deems does not meet the Program eligibility requirements or any applicant that CIEE does not deem appropriate to accept in the general interests of the Program. In the event that CIEE refuses an applicant acceptance on the Program, any refund will be made via the CIEE Representative through whom the original application was submitted.
- Participation on the Program begins when the participant legally enters the U.S. and terminates on the day of departure from the U.S. (within the legal Program dates). Participation on the Program will end a maximum of five months from arrival in the U.S. Participants can arrive five days prior to their DS-2019 start date and remain in the U.S. up to 30 days beyond their DS-2019 end dates, as long as their total stay in the U.S. does not exceed five months. Participants must return to their home country in time for the start of their university classes.
- CIEE may issue a DS-2019 form if a participant meets the Work & Travel USA Program requirements, but cannot guarantee that the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in a participant's country of residence will issue a J-1 visa.
- Once a participant has commenced his/her travel to the U.S. CIEE cannot amend the program dates as listed on the DS-2019 for any reason. It is the participant's responsibility to check prior to travel that the dates are correct.
- Individuals who have recently held a J-1 visa for the U.S. may have to remain in their home country for a minimum of 90 days before CIEE can issue a DS-2019 for Work & Travel USA. Please contact your local CIEE Representative and local U.S. Embassy for details.
- Insurance is provided for the dates confirmed by CIEE, by the CIEE insurance provider, as a mandatory part of the CIEE program for each applicant. It is the responsibility of each participant to purchase further insurance should they extend their period abroad for any reason. CIEE cannot be held responsible for any insurance claim in the event that a participant has failed to secure adequate insurance.
- Under the U.S. government's Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), CIEE is restricted in its access to certain medical information or records in the event that a participant has an accident in the U.S. In order for CIEE to assist participants to the fullest extent possible with any insurance-related issues, CIEE will need to have a signed Privacy and Confidentiality Release Form from the participant. This form is optional and the participant can choose whether or not CIEE is granted access to this information. This release form and additional information about the HIPAA requirements are included as part of the Work & Travel USA application pack. If you did not receive this information or release form please contact your CIEE Representative.
- CIEE reserves the right to dismiss from the Program any participant who is deemed by CIEE to be a danger to himself/herself or others or whose conduct is deemed to be detrimental to the Program. In the event of such a dismissal, CIEE shall not be held responsible for any airfare, charges or any other expense incurred by the participant, and shall not be required to return any fees paid by the participant.
- Once the participant has departed for the U.S., there will be no refund should the participant leave the Program. There will also be no refund should CIEE withdraw sponsorship.
- CIEE/Representative do not provide housing. If an employer offers housing it is usually on a first-come first-served basis. Whether the participant arranges housing independently or through the employer the participant may be required to sign a lease and pay a deposit, which usually amounts to the first and last month's rent and may include an additional security deposit.
- CIEE may provide the participant's contact information to third parties who provide useful services to exchange program participants. Third parties receiving this information will be required to provide the participant with the opportunity to opt out after the first contact.
- The Participant gives CIEE permission to use any written, photographic, or video images of himself/herself in the course of reporting on and/or promoting CIEE programs.

I confirm that the statements contained in this application form are accurate to the best of my knowledge, and I understand and accept the Standard Terms and Conditions.
